

Imagine!

July 2011

I imagine if you will, or indeed can, a life where there are no conflicting demands on your time. A life where your hearts desires are met and there is no hurrying and scurrying; no clock that seems to race round at an ever increasing speed. How might we find that perfect life or even the perfect place to live that perfect life? I love gardening - well, vegetable growing anyway - so this poem from Mick Suter does it for me on the vegetable growing front. Imagine the perfect growing season:

*Rain every night, a good steady fall,
warm sun all day, and no wind at all.
Earth light and soft, easy to seed, no couch at all,
not even a weed.
All seeds germinate, the carrots no gaps, just simple thinning,
I was a happy chap.
Broad beans grew well, no sign of black fly,
runners went mad reaching for the sky.
Pigeons found other brassicas to munch,
sparrows did not want my peas for lunch.
No slugs seen, there was not a snail, across the ground,
no silvery trail.
Molluscs and birds left strawberries alone, red and ripe,
but firm they had grown.
With currents and gooseberries the bushes were bowed,
the size of rasps made me really proud.
Salad crops, in abundance grew,
parsnips and carrots were long straight and true.
Potatoes were large, the best I have seen, no scab or holes, soil fell away clean.
Harvesting produce, the weather just right,
not one insect wanted to bite.*

*Suddenly the sound of wind and of rain,
I had fallen asleep in the shed again!*

Does that humorous poem mean that it is only in our dreams that life can be perfect?

Imagine your senses being awoken by the reality of Jesus before you. Imagine His outstretched hands taking yours and saying, 'Your sins are forgiven; welcome, let me shoulder your burdens.' Imagine how that would feel as all the stress and strain of your hectic life melts away and it is just you and Jesus.

Imagine Jesus leading you to places of quiet, places of joy, places of exquisite calm. When times are tough and time itself seems stretched almost to breaking point it is vital to allow Jesus to lead, to take the strain and enable you to be in that better place.

Life will not be perfect at the moment, but just imagine the difference in your life when you truly grip the Saviour's outstretched hands and trust him.

Shalom

All Welcome - Meetings are 8 pm

11th July 7 Blythwood Gardens - Shalom Party

There are no meetings in August. We resume on 26th September.

We are very sad to record the recent death of Harry Goreing, one of our longstanding Shalom members. Harry was a generous and kind man, who, along with his wife Edna, was very committed to the Shalom Group, even though they lived in Bishop's Stortford. Harry and Edna also regularly attended our monthly Methodist fellowship meetings, which were discontinued after we became Stansted Free Church. We will all miss him very much. Edna has sent the following message:

Thank you all for your loving messages, for visits, flowers and all the prayers which have sustained me since Harry died. I actually enjoyed his Thanksgiving service because I was so buoyed up by the love which surrounded me at that time. Without your support I would have floundered. My family add their heartfelt thanks to mine.

Marion Dyer

Care Time

Please remember any of our church family who need our prayers, including Allen Morton, our URC minister, who is on long term sick leave, and his wife Daphne; Edna Goreing and family, following the death of Harry; Mary Heuch who will be 90 on 10th July; and those no longer able to attend church.
