

Imagine!

October
2014

I imagine you are not yourself, but the person you are talking to / walking with / writing to ... I was lent a book for 'light holiday reading' called 'The man who forgot his wife'. When I had taken on the humour, anger, and strong language (as predicted in the blurb), I found a remarkable lesson in understanding. As the husband goes to the court for the final divorce hearing he recalls his wife's last furious outburst: "You never see things from my point of view!" (and so comes a life change for both). The man received the Wisdom of Solomon, who saw a mother's torment in her child's cry. He saw his really-loved wife in the pain she was feeling. As Job (28:12) pondered, 'Where can wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?'

Was it this understanding that brought Ian Paisley, scourge of the Roman Catholic Church, to change his "No! No! No! to popery" to "Enough! Enough! fellow-Irish killing"; and then come with Martin McGuinness to an amazing unity on policy and action for the preservation of Northern Ireland's peace - a firm friendship formed, by each coming to understand the other?

I was recovering from a slight accident when my young neighbour arrived, bearing a clip-board and a carton. "...the eggs you ordered...don't pay, but could you help me with my questionnaire on your faith?! - Do you believe in God? How did you first learn of Him? How do you see God? I replied along the lines of "As a loving Father; like when your father heard me when I fell last year and came and picked me up - just like that!" He was a God-send. I often wondered as a child what older people were thinking, and now I try to see what children see in this 'oldie'. I pray that through my unprepared, garbled answers to her quiz my young friend saw, behind me, just a little faith to go on.

Care Time

Please pray for: George Lambdon, father-in-law of Alan Wheeler, who is recovering from heart surgery; Roy and Christine Fowler as they settle into their new home, and for Roy's induction on 18th October; for others in our wider church family who need our prayers; and those no longer able to attend church.

We have received prayer requests from some of those who attend the Place on the Hill. We are remembering these requests during our Sunday worship. Please use the prayer slips which are available in the foyer.

Betty

Welcome to Roy and Christine Fowler

We extend a very warm welcome to our new minister Rev'd Roy Fowler and his wife Christine. They will be living in a manse recently purchased by the URC Eastern Synod.

Their address is
8 Birchalls Stansted CM24 8LQ.

A telephone number has been provisionally allocated by BT, but will not be confirmed until the line is connected in early October.

Roy's ministry with us begins on 18th October.

Church Deacon Vacancy

We have six deacons who represent the church members, and are elected for an initial term of six years. At the Annual Church Meeting, one of the deacons steps down, and although he or she could be re-elected for a further six years, this is an opportunity to draw someone new into this very important role in our church life. The Church Oversight Group (or COG as it is affectionately known) comprises the six deacons, joint treasurers, secretary (who may or may not also be a deacon), property secretary and the minister.

We meet every 2 months to discuss any issues concerning the running of the church, finance, pastoral concerns, etc, and if appropriate, bring proposals to the Church Meeting. This year Marion Pretty will be stepping down and we would ask all church members to prayerfully consider whether they should take on this role. If you would like to know more about what is involved, please speak to one of the present deacons: Judy, Brenda, Catherine, Betty, Valerie and Marion.

Anyone wishing to be considered must be nominated by another church member. Please hand any nominations to Betty by the end of October.
